

Greater Englewood Neighborhood Association Member Meeting Minutes

Date: 1/12/09

Location: Cuba Hunter Park

The meeting opened by President, Jeanie Holler

Agenda:

1. Welcome & prayer

2. Announcements –
The new produce stand at the “circle” has come on board as a new Sponsor at the $500.00 level. It should be opening soon. Mike, the owner at the Welcome Food Store on 3959 Spring Glen Rd & has been a sponsor for many years.

A new restaurant will come in at the old Mary’s Fried Chicken near Aaron’s Car Care.

Virginia College is coming in at the old Rowe’s at University & Beach.

Home Depot is on hold due to the lagging economy.

The Putnam/Hudnall project will be closing out around the end of January. There are still delays due to the contamination at the retention pond, but the rest of the project is still making progress

The 2/9 meeting will have Gary Dickinson with JSO as our guest speaker

Litter patrol will be 1/17 at the Circle.

Kelley Lucas – Best New Member Award

3. Presentation – Woodmen of the World #899 presented GENA with a US Flag. The presentation was immediately followed by the Pledge of Allegiance.

4. Guest Speaker – Suzanne Jenkins
We broke into teams to work on 10 goals. All the goals were written down for the entire group to see. Each member of the group was given 3 dots to put beside the goals they’d like to “vote” for. Suzanne will come back next month with the top 10 selections.

5. Budget –
The 2009 proposed budget was submitted; vote was taken & approved by the group.

6. Benches for Little Englewood –
The proposed purchase of 2 benches was submitted; vote was taken & approved by the group.

7. Board members –
Marlene MacMillin & Eleanor King volunteered for open Board positions. Their nominations were submitted; vote was taken & approved by the group.
